

Webinar on ‘Interest rates’

The Sunday Times Business Club (STBC), in its monthly series discussing matters of national, economic and business importance, is organising a webinar on “interest rates” this month.

The zoom discussion on Monday May 24 at 7 pm will deal with the strategy of the Central Bank to lower interest rates and its impact on savers particularly pensioners and, on the other hand, in driving more economic activity.

The panel comprises Dr. Chandranath Amarasekara, Director of Economic Research, Central Bank and Dhananath Fernando, Chief Operating Officer/founding member of the think-tank Advocata Institute.

Those interested in following this webinar should send an email request to STBC Secretary Samitha Hemachandra to samithahemachandra@gmail.com
